

Bringing History to Life™

Scan to learn more.

Literacy Activity Worksheet for Petoskey, MI: Carnegie Public Library (1908)

Five Finger Retell

When retelling a story you need...

When retelling a story, you need to remember the characters, setting, problem, events, and solution. To remember these key details, you can use the Five Finger Retell strategy. Use the image above to help you retell the story.

Who are the Characters in the story:

Where is the Setting of the story:

Describe some Events from the story:

What is a Problem in the story:

How do some characters create a Solution:

Additional questions for more Five Finger Retell

In the right column of the chart, write your answer to the questions.

Question:	Answer:
1. Who promised to donate $15,000 to help build a public library in Petoskey?
2. Where in Michigan is Petoskey located?
3. Why did many citizens feel it was important to build a public library?
4. Who else helped pay for the Carnegie Public Library in Petoskey?
5. What month and year did it officially open?

Are you ready for another Five Finger Retell?

List three items you can find in a library today.

Give two reasons libraries are important.